Greetings to the Graduates

As we go through life, our progress is marked by special moments when we turn corners and new horizons open before us. This convocation of scholars celebrates the happy observance of such an important turning point in your lives.

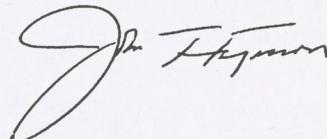

The ceremony is steeped in customs that have been passed down to us over the centuries. It is sedate, colorful, traditional, and meaningful. We hope you enjoy the experience and participate in the goodwill that permeates a day to be remembered.

By conferring its degrees, the University confirms that you have successfully fulfilled a rigorous course of study and have earned the right to enter into the collegiality of educated women and men. Be proud of what you have done, and be grateful for what the University has done for you.

Understand that the University of Alberta is not just the campus you know so well. It is everything that our graduates of yesterday, today, and tomorrow accomplish to make our world a better place to live in. Today you join a worldwide community of alumni, a hundred thousand strong, whose support and interest is vital to the enhancement of the quality and the value of the degrees which you receive today. Keep in touch, and never forget the University that nurtured the mind you use every day. You entered to grow in wisdom. You leave the better to serve your community and yourselves.

Welcome and Congratulations.

John T Ferguson, FCA, LLD (Hon)
Chancellor

Universities began as small collections of scholars who worked together to preserve and advance knowledge. Students came to study with them and, in due course, an administrative structure arose to provide system and recognition for those studies. This ancient structure is preserved at the University of Alberta, with the faculty and the students providing the core of the University's purpose: teaching and the advancement of knowledge. The faculty's task is facilitated by their colleagues in the academic staff, the Faculty Service Officers, the Administrative Professional Officers, the Librarians, and the University's dedicated support staff.

The faculty, numbering some 1,600, is responsible for creating programs of study, for teaching, and for evaluating the learning of the student body, both undergraduate and graduate. In addition, faculty members are responsible for the scholarly reputation of the University by preserving and sharing knowledge and by pursuing new ideas and knowledge through their research.

The faculty and staff congratulate you, the graduates, on the successful completion of your present studies which is recognized by the degrees to which you are admitted today. Your achievement deserves praise. We hope your present knowledge provides a sound base for an education which will continue throughout a rewarding life. We would remind you of the advice given to graduates by Honorary Degree Recipient Tommy Banks: "Try to be a good person. You will be amazed how rewarding it is."

Congratulations from the Faculty and Staff!

Our lives are often marked by special milestones that leave indelible impressions on us. For students, convocation is a celebration of achievement that creates lasting memories.

I am pleased to join family members and friends in congratulating you on your convocation. It takes a great deal of dedication and commitment to successfully obtain a goal such as this. You can be proud of your perseverance and success.

Graduates of the University of Alberta are reflective of the talent and creativity that exists in our province. The skills and knowledge you have obtained during your academic career will stand you in good stead throughout your life.

On behalf of the Government of Alberta, I wish you success in all of your endeavours.

Lyle Oberg, Minister

Honorary Degree Recipient

The Honourable Lois Elsa Hole, CM, AOE, Lieutenant Governor of Alberta and Chancellor-Emeritus of the University of Alberta, is renowned and respected for her many contributions to education, community volunteerism, business and the quality of life in Alberta.

Born and raised in Buchanan, Saskatchewan, Her Honour moved to Edmonton in her early teens and completed her secondary education at Strathcona Composite High School. In 1952 she and her husband Ted (BScAg '52) bought a mixed farm in St Albert which, by 1960, they had diversified into a vegetable and mixed garden business. In 1979 the farm was incorporated as Hole's Greenhouses and Gardens Ltd and their sons Bill (BScAg '78) and Jim (BScAg '79) joined the business full-time. It has since grown into one of the largest retail greenhouse operations in western Canada.

Her Honour is a prolific and acclaimed writer of gardening books. She has authored eight Canadian bestsellers including I'll Never Marry A Farmer - a collection of personal life stories, photographs and growing information. She also shares co-author credit, with her son Jim, for three Question and Answer style gardening books; these are also bestsellers. Formerly a regular contributor to the Globe and Mail, Edmonton Journal, and the Edmonton Sun, she was also the writer of the Canadian portion of the 1999 and 2000 versions of the Old Farmer's Almanac Gardening Companion and was a regular on the "Grapevine" segment of CBC TV's Canadian Gardener.

She served as a school trustee for the St Albert School District #6 from 1981 to the fall of 1998. She previously served, for fourteen years, as a trustee and chairperson for the Sturgeon School Division and, for eleven years, as a member of the Athabasca University Governing Council. Her Honour was a director of the Farm Credit Corporation and served as Honorary Chair for the 27th Canadian Congress on Criminal Justice and for the Children's Millennium Fund. She was also a board member of the Canadian Heritage Garden Foundation, the Child & Adolescent Services Association and the Quality of Life Commission.

During the past five years, she has spoken to nearly 700 gardening, educational and business groups across North America, to a total audience of over 100,000 people. In 1983, Her Honour was awarded an honorary doctorate from Athabasca University and in 1997 received a Distinguished Citizen Honourary Diploma in Business from Grant McEwan Community College. In 1995 she was named as both Edmonton Business and Professional Woman of the Year and as St Albert's Citizen of the Year. In 1998 she was elected as the Chancellor of the University of Alberta and was appointed a Member of the Order of Canada in 1999. In February of this year she was installed as the 15th Lieutenant Governor of the Province of Alberta, and consequently was required to step away from her position as Chancellor and her gardening endeavors. She has vowed to make education the focus of her term.

A woman of uncommon distinction and great warmth, she possesses that rare combination of vision, practicality and compassion. Her generosity of spirit and commitment to society is truly exceptional and inspiring.

The University of Alberta Senate is donating the following volumes to the Bruce Peel Special Collections Library to commemorate the awarding of an honorary degree to The Honourable Lois E Hole:

F. Andre Michaux's The North American Sylva, or a description of the forest trees of the United States, Canada and Nova Scotia; with Thomas Nuttall, The North American Sylva... [those] not described by Michaux. Philadelphia, 1865. Five volumes.

The most complete work of its kind, Michaux's collection is of unrivalled beauty and includes 277 hand-coloured plates depicting the varying leaves of North American forest trees. A landmark set with exceptionally fresh and clean illustrations, these volumes are of great value to botanists and lovers of the book arts.

The list of candidates for degrees, certificates, and diplomas appearing herein is subject to such corrections, with respect to additions, deletions, and changes, as may be necessary. The Presentation

The Dean of the Faculty of Graduate Studies and Research presents the candidates for degrees with these words:

"Eminent Chancellor and President, on behalf of the Faculties, I present to you these scholars and ask that they be pledged and admitted to the degrees to which they are entitled."

The Pledge

The President then addresses the candidates in these words:

"Do you promise faithfully to observe and loyally to maintain the statutes, customs, privileges, and liberties of this, your University? Do you solemnly promise to conduct yourself in all things loyally and faithfully to the honour of your University, the encouragement of learning, and the good of your country?"

Each candidate replies:

"These things I pledge myself to do."

The Admission

The Chancellor then addresses the candidates in these words:

"By virtue of the authority vested in me by the Legislature of this Province, and with the consent of this University, I admit you to the degrees to which you are entitled, and invest you with all the powers, rights, and privileges pertaining to such degrees. I charge you to use them for the glory of God and the honour of your country."

The graduates remain in their places.

Honorary Degree Recipient

A native Albertan and alumnus, Mr Arne Rudolph Nielsen of Calgary has made a significant contribution to both Alberta and Canada as an exceptionally successful finder of oil.

Mr Nielsen was born on a farm in Standard, Alberta where his parents, originally from Denmark, had migrated to homestead. He attended public and high school at Standard, then moved to the University of Alberta graduating in 1949 with an honours degree in Geology followed, in 1950, by a masters degree in Geology.

Upon graduation, he joined what was to become Mobil Oil Canada, and thus began his career as a petroleum geologist. For the remainder of the decade he worked in various geological capacities for the company in Calgary, Edmonton and Regina, ultimately becoming Chief Geologist for the Company. In 1959 he was transferred to the United States and worked in senior exploration and management positions in New York,

Denver and Houston. He returned to Calgary in 1966 and the following year became President of Mobil Oil Canada Ltd, the first Canadian ever to be appointed to that position. During his tenure as President, he was a principal in the organization of the Hibernia consortium for exploration of the Atlantic offshore ventures and was present to sign the Hibernia Agreement with Prime Minister Mulroney and Premier Peckford.

Mr Nielsen resigned from Mobil Oil in 1977 to become President and Chief Executive Officer of Canadian Superior Oil Ltd and, five years later, Chairman and CEO of that Company. In 1986, when Mobil Oil Corporation acquired Canadian Superior Oil Ltd, he was appointed Chairman and CEO of the merged company. Mr Nielsen is currently the Chairman and CEO of his own company, Shiningbank Energy Management Inc.

It can be argued that no one has made a more significant contribution to the discovery of oil in Alberta than Mr Nielsen. His innovative, academic and tenacious approach convinced Mobil Oil to trust his knowledge and instincts and this resulted in the discovery of the Pembina Oil Field, the largest in Canada, and several fields in Saskatchewan. The monies returned and still being returned to the citizens of Alberta through provincial revenues arising from his discovery of the giant Pembina oil fields are immeasurable. Mr Nielsen himself retained no patent to his discoveries or his intellectual property but, in essence, seconded it to the people of Alberta - a tremendous gift.

Over the years, Mr Nielsen has given much of his time as a community leader. He has volunteered in executive and fundraising positions for many organizations including the United Way, Council for Canadian Unity, Cerebral Palsy Foundation, Governor General's Study Conference and several Canadian universities, including his alma mater. He has also been an active participant in the professional organizations and societies in his field of expertise. Among his many awards are honorary membership in both the Canadian Petroleum Association and the American Association of Petroleum Geologists.

Mr Nielsen has long been a role model and mentor for many University of Alberta students throughout their studies and their careers and remains a remarkable inspiration to many geologists today.

The University of Alberta Senate is donating the following volume to the Bruce Peel Special Collections Library to commemorate the awarding of an honorary degree to Mr Arne Rudolph Nielsen:

George Woodcock's The Island of Demons, a verse play based on a Canadian legend, with lithographs by Ray Cattell. Published in Lindsay, Ontario in 1998 by Harwood Press, No. 55 of 100 signed copies in unique designer binding by Cattell.

This dramatic poem involves adventure, love, and a range of emotions amongst 16th-century castaways on a mysterious island near Newfoundland and is based, in part, on a native legend. It was produced by the CBC in 1956, but has never before appeared in print. Woodcock, who died in 1995, was one of Canada's greatest men of letters and this sumptuous volume thus contains both a significant Canadian text and an outstanding example of fine Canadian bookmaking.

Graduates

The list of candidates for degrees, certificates, and diplomas appearing herein is subject to such corrections, with respect to additions, deletions, and changes, as may be necessary. The information as presented is current as of the program printing deadline. Graduates attending the ceremony are presented to the Chancellor alphabetically. The winner of the most prestigious award in each faculty, if attending, is presented first.

Alumni Association Branches

While approximately 40 percent of our graduates live in Edmonton and nearby communities, more than 12,000 alumni reside in 120 different countries. There are active alumni groups in more than 35 locations. These alumni branches provide welcome social and career contacts to the graduate moving to a new area. New branches are always being formed. If there is a branch in the city where you will be establishing roots, be sure to contact the representative listed. If there is not, contact the Office of Alumni Affairs to see if there are plans for one. You might like to help get it started.

Contact can be made with these representatives through the Office of Alumni Affairs (above).

The University Coat of Arms

On November 15, 1909, a motion by the faculty recommended to the Senate the adoption by the University of the provincial coat of arms, with the addition of an open book above the shield and the motto Lux et Lex; the words "University of Alberta" were to be attached as might seem fit. The present motto was substituted in January 1911 for the one originally proposed. In 1950 the representation of the coat of arms was altered to conform better to the principles of heraldic design but these arms were never actually registered.

In 1994 a new coat of arms incorporating a number of traditional symbols associated with the University or the Province, or with learning, was officially granted by the Canadian Heraldic Authority. In non-technical language, it consists of the following elements:

Shield: a representation of the topography of Alberta (wheat fields, hills, rivers, and the Rocky Mountains) derived from the provincial coat of arms, and a book symbolizing learning.

Crest: a Great Horned Owl, the provincial bird and a traditional symbol of wisdom.

Supporters: a pronghorn, taken from the provincial coat of arms, and a golden bear, long the University mascot, standing on a mound of wild roses, the floral emblem of Alberta.

Motto: Quaecumque vera ("Whatsoever things are true," Philippians 4:8)

The arms are copyrighted and may not be used without permission of the Board of Governors. The name of the University is similarly protected.

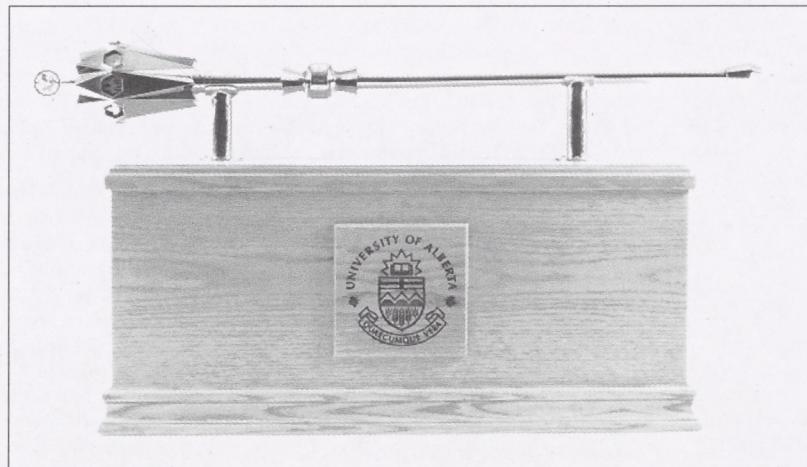

University Mace and Ceremonial Chairs

The University Mace was designed and crafted specifically for the University as a gift from Dr Francis Phillip Galbraith, Chancellor of the University of Alberta from 1964 to 1970. Michael Galbraith presented the Mace on behalf of his father on May 26, 1970.

Among its elements are the Star of Saint Thomas Aquinas, the Patron Saint of Scholars; the Wild Rose of Alberta; the Maple Leaf; and the separate charges which make up the University's Emblem. The University motto "Quaecumque Vera" ("Whosoever Things Are True" Phil 4:8) encircles the staff. The Mace is made of sterling silver which was rhodium plated after the insertion of the various enamelled shields which make up its elements. A special electroplate process was used to apply 24 karat gold to other parts of the Mace.

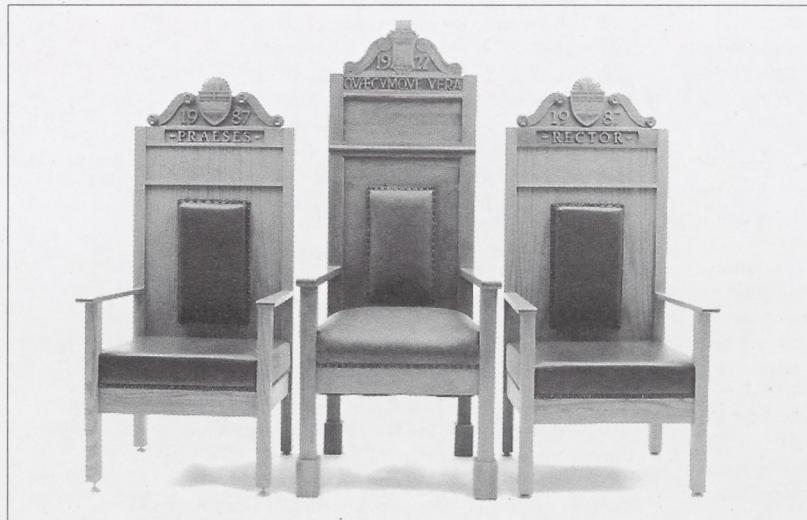

It was intended that the Mace should be modern in appearance but with medieval origins. The preponderance of visual weight at the top of the staff and the rather complex section through the metalwork at this point are reminiscent of the use of the mace as a weapon, defensive or aggressive.

The Mace is carried before the Chancellor, or Vice-Chancellor, in procession and rests on its stand in full view of the assembly during Convocation. Centuries ago the Mace was a symbol of authority over life and death. Today it represents power – but the power of knowledge and the importance of the University in the community.

The Chancellor's Chair was presented to the University of Alberta as a gift from the 1922 graduating class. It is made of solid oak with a padded leather back and seat. Above the padded-leather back is carved the University motto "Quaecumque Vera" together with the class year, 1922, and the University emblem.

In 1987, the family and friends of Dr Charles Malcolm Macleod, Chair of the Board of Governors from 1950 to 1966, presented a memorial gift to the University of an oak stand for the University of Alberta Mace and two additional chairs for use by the President and the Chair of the Board of Governors at Convocation.

History of Convocation

In the eleventh century, a new vitality quickened all aspects of the civilization of Western Europe. The creative forces thus unleashed soon found expression in new institutions, and of these the university bids fair to be the most enduring. The modern university is the lineal descendant of the university of the Middle Ages. Its purposes and organization, even much of its ceremonial, are medieval in origin.

The medieval university was originally called a studium generale, that is, a place of learning to which teachers and students from anywhere resorted. The first studia were at Salerno, Bologna, and Paris. These came into existence spontaneously and developed through the twelfth century as the needs of the time and their inner necessities dictated. In the thirteenth century these spontaneous associations crystallized into guilds or corporations endowed by Church and State with specific privileges which guaranteed the internal autonomy necessary for the vocation of study. To these corporations was increasingly applied the word universitas denoting the entire group of those responsible for the transmission of higher learning and the pursuit of knowledge.

By the beginning of the fourteenth century, two forms of university organization had appeared. At Bologna, primarily a higher school of canon and civil law to which came men experienced in ecclesiastical and secular administration, the control of the studium generale passed to the students; hence Bologna was a universitas scholarum. On the other hand in Paris and Oxford, whose dominant faculty was the Faculty of Arts, the studium emerged under the direction of a guild of teachers, a universitas magistrorum. Through its own officials, notably the chancellor (once symbol of external control and by now of internal autonomy), the guild of teachers developed its courses of instruction, administered its own affairs and admitted to its company only those who had met its intellectual standards. The University of Alberta stands in the tradition of Paris and Oxford.

Originally the goal of the medieval student was certification by the guild of teachers that he also was qualified to teach (the licentia docendi). With the passage of time the student's progress through the curriculum was marked by ceremonies which signified his successful attainment of a certain level (gradus or in modern language, degree) of competence. The Bachelor had completed his apprenticeship in the Faculty of Arts. The Master was now qualified to teach in that Faculty and was thus incorporated into the universitas magistrorum. The Doctor was one who, having obtained the mastership, had successfully completed the curriculum of one of the "higher" faculties (in the Middle Ages, law, medicine, and theology) and was now qualified to teach in those faculties. Inevitably the degrees of the universitas did more than admit their holders to the teaching profession. They served the wider social purpose of demonstrating their holders' fitness to serve the entire medieval community.

Today's ceremony stems from the medieval tradition. The procession of the guild of teachers, whose solemn assembly, or convocation, is the modern equivalent of the medieval magna congregatio of all faculties, is lead by the Chancellor and the Chief Marshal carrying the mace, the symbol of the University's corporate authority. The academic gowns, hoods, and caps, once the sober, disciplined dress of secular clergy and teachers, declare in their various designs and colours the academic qualifications of the Faculty. The citations and presentations by the Faculty to the Chancellor attest to him and to society the degree of proficiency attained by the students of the University. There follows a visible and public act whereby the universitas magistrorum, acting through its Chancellor, confers upon the students the appropriate degree. It is the act, not a certificate, which constitutes the validity of the degree bestowed. More, the formula, "I admit you" and the placing of the students' hands within the hands of the Chancellor and his associates, bind the students in the appropriate degree to the universitas magistrorum. The students thereafter bear for all time the mark of their association with this University. They have received what the University has been and presently is. Because they bear in themselves the promise of the future, they are what the University hopes to be. Despite its solemnity, convocation is a joyous occasion.

The history of academic dress reaches far back into early days of the oldest universities. A statute of 1321 required that all "Doctors, Licentiates, and Bachelors" of the University Coimbra wear gowns. In England, in the second half of the fourteenth century, the statutes of certain colleges forbade "excess apparel" and prescribed the wearing of a long gown. It is still a controversial question as to whether academic dress finds its sources chiefly in ecclesiastical or in civilian dress. Gowns may have been counted necessary for warmth in the unheated buildings frequented by medieval scholars. Hoods seem to have served to cover the tonsured head until superseded for that purpose by the skull cap. This was itself displaced by a headdress more or less like one or another of those now recognized as "academic." (The mortar board—the hard, square cap commonly used as academic headdress today—evolved from the softer, more flexible "square cap" introduced in England about 1490. It is named for the square board on a handle used by stone masons for holding the mixed mortar to be applied to walls.) Both Cambridge and Oxford have made academic dress a matter of university control to the extent of even its minor details and have repeatedly issued revised regulations. In Laudian days in Oxford it was prescribed that any tailor who departed from authorized design "even by a nail's breadth" in the making of any article of collegiate costume was to be punished by the vice-chancellor of the university.

Academic dress at the University of Alberta generally follows the prescription of Cambridge University in the design of the gown, and that of Oxford University in the design of the hood. The following page provides a detailed description of the academic dress at this institution.

In addition to the apparel worn by holders of degrees conferred by the University of Alberta, a collection of apparel specific to particular offices has also been developed. The President of the University wears a green gown faced with gold braid trim and lining and a green cap with a gold tassel. The Chancellor and Chancellors Emeriti wear gowns of teal blue with silver trim and black caps with silver tassels. The gowns of the senior officials bear an embroidered crest of the University. University Governors and Senators wear stoles bearing the crest of the University over their gowns: gold for Governors and green for Senators. The University Registrar wears a green gown with gold trim on the sleeves.

Graduates and staff of the University of Alberta who wish to purchase their own academic apparel are invited to contact the Convocation Officer in the Office of the Registrar and Student Awards.

Academic Dress

All undergraduate and master's degree gowns are the customary Cambridge shape, i.e., a gown of black material falling below the knee with full sleeves cut to the elbow and terminating in a point. Hoods are made in the Oxford pattern of spruce green material. The Bachelor's hood has a border three inches wide of the color distinctive of the Faculty as noted below. The Masters' hood has a full lining of the color distinctive of the Faculty also noted below. Mortarboards are the standard black trencher shape with black tassels, which are worn forward and to the left.

Doctor's hoods conform to the Intercollegiate Code in shape, size, and color. They are made of black material to match the gown, and have a full lining of gold satin with a six-inch green satin chevron. The velvet trim distinguishes the two degrees and matches the velvet trim on the gown's sleeves. There is a narrow green piping where the gold lining joins the black material. Mortarboards are the standard black trencher shape with black tassels, which are worn forward and to the left.

Honorary Doctorates

Honorary Doctors of Laws (LLD), Letters (DLitt), and Science (DSc) wear a scarlet robe faced with white silk. Hoods are made in the Cambridge form of scarlet silk with a full lining of white silk. Caps are black velvet with a gold tassel.
